Re: The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate as Official Journal for Clerk of Court of the Parish of Orleans

Pursuant to La. R.S. 43:201.1, effective June 15, 2026, the Clerk of Court for the Parish of Orleans has selected The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate as its official journal for all advertisements required to be made in relation to judicial proceedings. Beginning July 1, 2026, all advertisements required to be made in relation to judicial proceedings for the Clerk's Office shall be placed in The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate.

The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate will print judicial advertisements at the rate of $0.28 per agate line. Curatorship Ads are considered Classified Announcements and will be processed at the classified ad rate of $1.50 per word with a 15-word minimum. Additionally, all judicial and legal ads will be posted online at no extra charge at The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate's website, <http://louisianapublicnotice.com>.

The advertisements have to be received by The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate three (3) days prior to the publication date. You can submit your advertisements for publication by email to The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate. Below are the details:

To submit your advertisements to The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate via email, you would email it to gnolegals@theadvocate.com. The Times-Picayune/The New Orleans Advocate prefers that the attachment be a Word document. A pdf document is also acceptable.

If you have any questions you can call 225-388-0128 and a Legal Customer Service Representative will be able to assist you.

Additionally, pursuant to La. R.S. 43:202, advertisements in auxiliary journal are required. The auxiliary journal remains the Louisiana Weekly.
